HIGHLAND CARE CENTER

Highland Care Center, a 320-bed skilled nursing facility, located in Jamaica, NY, treated some of their residents to a ballgame at Citi Field. On Thursday, August 12, 2010, a group of HCC Mets fans (a few traitorous Yankee fans included) attended a noon ballgame at Citi Field. The staff and residents had excellent seats and were lucky to see the Mets ace, Johan Santana, pitch a complete game against the Colorado Rockies in the team's new home. Citi Field is beautiful and it is smaller than Shea Stadium but it gives the fans a more intimate feel for the game.

The customer relations staff at Citi Field took the residents under their wings and made them feel special. The group enjoyed the between-innings fun and clapped and danced to the variety of music played like salsa and Italian melodies. They joined everyone in singing (more like screaming) "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" during the 7th inning stretch. It was a wonderful outing for all. Even those Yankee fans enjoyed themselves. The best part of the day – the Mets won 4-0. LET'S GO METS!
